R. D. WILLIAMS, Observer.

Personal and Social.

John McGrady went to Palatka last Monday.
Mrs. W. H. Fuller is recovering from her recent severe illness.
The Crescent City stores have been doing a big Christmas business.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams are preparing to move into their new home this week.

Oliver Chamberlain spent the few busy days previous to Christmas clerking in Curry's shoe store, in Palatka.

Mrs. A. W. Foot of Chicago, a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Hale, has come to Grove Hall for a stay of some time.

Mrs. G. F. Morse and daughter, Mrs. Phinney, of Portland, Maine, are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Gowen.

Henry Hutchinson of this place has made his formal announcement as a candidate for county clerk in the coming democratic primary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fallow of Connecticut have arrived and have taken the Cowles house on south Main street. They are expecting friends to join them later.

D. Coleman will further improve his new home on Summit street by the addition of front and rear verandas. Mr. Coleman spent Monday in Palatka.

Miss Lennie Eaton, an attractive and accomplished young lady from Nova Scotia, is here to spend the season with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. L. Eaton.

The Misses Clarissa and Bessie A. Williams, who are expected here later in the season, are now with their niece, Miss Alice Hutchinson, at Asheville, N. C.

The young people of the place are arranging for a fine dancing party at V. I. A. hall on the evening of January 2d, with music by Mr. and Mrs. Schubert of Jacksonville, if they can be secured for that date.

F. S. Cone spent several days in Jacksonville last week. Mr. Cone was so well pleased with the rapid growth and solid appearance of the metropolis that he made some investments in Jacksonville real estate.

The sympathy of the community is with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall in the death of their little month old son on Thursday last week. The funeral occurred on Friday morning and was conducted by Rev. G. H. Ward.

C. H. Cash has been critically ill for the past ten days, and at our latest report was not improving, though the family and all the people of the place are hopeful for a speedy turn for the better and his ultimate recovery.

The rains of the past week have been helpful in raising the water in Lake Stella and in solving the problem for its future navigation for Capt. LaBree. The boats now run nicely but a lot more water is needed.

Miss Margaret and Master Bela Hubbard are at home for the holidays from their school in Virginia, and with them is a school friend from the far-off state of Washington.

The Shakespeare class was postponed from Monday to Thursday afternoon of this week on account of Christmas preparations, and met with Mrs. F. S. Crotty. The announcement for the meeting next week will be posted in the post-office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sackett and their bunch of interesting children had a happy Christmas time. Their pretty home on the Lake Stella front was beautifully decorated with holly for the occasion and there was a big Xmas tree of holly. The children in this family are in great favor with Santa Claus.

Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Ivory came up from Jacksonville last Thursday and remained over Sunday. They have not permanently abandoned their home here—at least Capt. Ivory says he likes Crescent City best, and as long as he feels that way and has a furnished home here there is ground for hope of his return.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crowell of Providence, R. I., came down with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson and have secured rooms with Mrs. J. J. Horton. They are quite well pleased with the place and the news trusts that this favorable first impression will take deep enough root to induce them to come again.

The ladies of the V. I. A. have secured the Traveling Art Gallery of the General Federation of Women's clubs, and this will exhibit at the hall this (Friday) afternoon and evening, Dec. 27th. In the evening a card party, with refreshments, will be given in connection with the exhibit. Everyone is cordially invited. The admission in the afternoon will be 10 cents; in the evening, 35 cents.

B. B. Harris opened his barber shop last week in the room next east of McCormick's bakery and which was formerly used as a pool room. He first bought out John Vincent, and therefore starts up with a monopoly business. But the people won't care about that so long as he gives them a good shave—and he does that.

The News has received a letter from its old friend, L. L. Newsom of La Gloria, Cuba, in which he says some good things about the paper and concerning his continued interest in Crescent City, where he lived so long and numbered so many friends. These, we are sure, will be more than gratified to learn of his continued prosperity in that land of sunshine, sugar, agudiente, rebellion and chicken fights. If Mr. Newsom wasn't so blamed prosperous down there, the chances are he would come back home, for there is no country he can ever love quite so well as Florida and Crescent City.

Rev. Earl D. Sims, the Baptist evangelist to whose efforts last summer is due the organization of Crescent City's new Baptist church, arrived last Friday with Rev. R. N. Cate, the carpenter-preacher from Tennessee who is to build the new church house. At a meeting of the society on Friday night, after listening to an able sermon by Mr. Sims, Rev. Mr. Cate was called to the temporary pastorate of the Crescent City society, and he will immediately begin the work of organizing his forces and building the church. This new edifice is to occupy a part of the lot at the corner of Summit street and Cypress ave., directly west of the Presbyterian church. It is to be a modern frame edifice of fair proportions and a decided ornament to the town. It is Mr. Cate's purpose to remain here as pastor until the church is completed and dedicated. He preached to the Baptist congregation in the Auditorium both morning and evening last Sunday and all were greatly pleased with the new pastor. Mr. Cate's family will soon arrive.

POMONA NEWS.

Mrs. C. A. Knowlton and Miss Ethel Morrison were guests of Mrs. W. J. Keown in Deland last week.

Miss Francis Mobley is spending the holidays at her home in Hastings.

Mrs. E. L. Eames left Sunday for a visit with friends in Jacksonville.

Holmes Waldron gave a delightful oyster roast to his young friends Friday night.

Mrs. W. H. Woodwell and Mrs. E. H. Thissell were shopping in Palatka last week.

Miss Stella Smith, Mrs. E. N. Pip-lar, Miss Francis Mobley, Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Middleton, Chas.
Piplar, Holmes and Leonard Waldron comprised a pleasant party to Palatka last Thursday on a Chris-mas shopping expedition. The party also spent the evening at the new Howell Theater enjoying Coburn's Greater Minstrels.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thissell have rented Mrs. A. C. Smith's house for the winter and are pleasantly located there.

Mrs. Woodard of Skyland, N. C., is a guest of Mrs. E. Erwin during the holidays.

Mr. E. W. Waldron of Atlanta spent a few days with Mrs. Frank Waldron and Mrs. Erwin last week.

Miss Effie Martin and Mr. Harry Milton were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Sunday night at 6 o'clock. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and was filled with relatives and friends of the couple. The bride looked charming in crown of white organdie, lace and ribbon. Mr. and Mrs. Milton, after a short bridal tour, will go to Miami to reside.

The New England supper given by the V. I. A. ladies last week, was a success in all ways, and well patronized by townpeople.

LAKE COMO.

Howard Manchester of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been a guest at All View Cottage, left for St. Petersburg, Fla., where he will join his parents.

Mrs. Davies and granddaughter left for Jacksonville, where they will spend the holidays with friends.

D. B. Raybon was a visitor in Palatka recently.

Miss Lillie Norton is visiting relatives in Pomona.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Monjar and Thos. Carson were visitors at Crescent City recently.

Joel Jenkins is having a fine dock built on Lake Como.

Maurice Blood is spending his holidays with his mother at their beautiful home. His many friends are pleased to see him.

Mrs. Anna Mitchell has returned from Jasper, Fla.

Praise and Bible study service was held in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Prior and son and Mrs.
W. L. Gable and son visited Huntington recently.

Best wishes to the editor for a very Merry Christmas and a bright and prosperous New Year.

CHILDREN'S

favorite tonic is White's Cream Vernalfuge, the cure for worms and all children's diseases. It not only kills the worms, but removes the nausea and sickness in which they build their nests.
Its action on the child is mild and leaves him in a healthy condition. Joe Daniel, Surmae, Tenn., says that he gave one of his children White's Cream Vernalfuge when the doctor thought it had colic, and from the first dose the child passed 73 worms. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H.
Walker, Waubury, Ohio.

A Historic Spot.

In the wall of the five story tenement at the southeast corner of Oak and Oliver streets on the side toward the latter are inserted five bronze tablets, two between the second and third floors, one between the third and fourth and two between the fourth and fifth. It would be a safe wager that not one of the 150 persons living in the building knows the significance of those tablets. It was in a tavern on this spot that the articles of evacuation of New York were signed by the British on Nov. 25, 1783. The tablets were first placed in the walls of the old tavern. The builder of the tenement had some patriotism in his heart and built them into the tenements—New York Sun.

Surprised the Guests.

A former Duke of Norfolk was once strangely embarrassed at the breakfast table. A large house party had gathered together at Arundel castle, and the duke was entertaining, as he could so well do. The butler entered the breakfast room rather hurriedly and evidently very excited. "Your grace—may I please your grace," he said, trying to attract the attention of his ducal master. "What is it?" "May I please your grace, Lord Thurlow has laid an egg." "You don't say so?" "Yes, your grace." An explanation was due his startled guests, and the duke told how, some time before, the daughter of Lord Thurlow, in looking at the valuable collection of owls which the duke possessed, stopped before one of the cages and, looking at the blinking bird, said, "Why, he's just like papa." The bird was ever after called "Lord Thurlow."

EARLY TO BED

and early to rise, makes one healthy, happy and wise especially if you take Herbine before retiring. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. S. — Columbia, Tenn., writes: "I always keep a supply of your Herbine on hand. Am so pleased with the relief it gives in constipation and all liver complaints, that words can't express my appreciation. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

Husband and Wife.

A man is not happy when he is continually being made to feel that he has acted like a brute, nor does any man like to have a woman, however dearly he loves her, peering forever into the recesses of his mind with a view to finding out if he cares for her as much as he did yesterday. I have seen many a decent fellow made almost brutal by this sort of affectionate inquisition. No man enjoys having his affections pulled up by the roots to see if they have grown or not since yesterday. In short, every human being feels the need of a little decent mental privacy. Every one has a right to thoughts of his own, a right to variations of emotions that he is not bound to tell about. Women do not think this. They will relentlessly track every feeling their husbands have to its last hiding place. Then, when all spontaneity is dead, they mourn for it—"Husband" in Harper's.

WHAT'S

worth doing is worth doing well. If you wish to be cured of Rheumatism, use Ballard's Snow Liniment and you will be "well cured." A positive cure for Sprains, Neuralgia, Bruises, Contracted Muscles and all the ills that flesh is heir to. A. G. M. Williams, Navasota, Texas, writes:
"I have used Snow Liniment for sprained ankle and it gave the best of satisfaction. I always keep it in the house." Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

No Longer Wanted.

"Writing plays is risky business," said a famous dramatist. "Fast triumphs don't count. He who has written twenty superb pieces is just as likely to be damned on his twenty-first piece as any tyro."

"There was once a playwright who sat in the front row at the first night of a new piece of his own. This piece failed. It failed dreadfully.

"As the playwright sat, pale and sad, and the hisses a woman behind him leaned forward and said:

"Excuse me, sir, but, knowing you to be the author of this play, I took the liberty at the beginning of the performance of snipping off a lock of your hair. Allow me now to return it to you."—New York Tribune.

Ferocious Pike.

The pike has been termed the fresh water shark, and it deserves the name.
There are scores of cases on record where pike have seized ducks, swans, even dogs, in the water. There is even a story of a pike seizing a man. The man was a Dr. Cougo, who when bathing near Vienna was seized by the hook of a pike weighing more than thirty pounds and dragged under water. Had not his friends come to his rescue he would certainly have been drowned. A certain amount of risk attaches to the catching of large pike.
That celebrated sportsman Chomonde-ley Pennell once hooked and landed a particularly fine specimen from the Thames, when the creature sprang from the grass and fixed its sharp teeth in his leg just above the knee.
Its jaws had to be pried open with a stick to force it to let go. — London Standard.

Too Much Cordiality.

A certain young man in New York is looking anxiously for expert advice as to how he shall cease his weekly call upon a certain young woman without plunging into all sorts of trouble.

"Oh, I like the girl as well as ever," he explained to a friend, "but it's this way: Every time I go there she shakes hands, and we go into the parlor.
Then one of her sisters comes in and shakes hands. During the next twenty minutes the other five sisters come in, one at a time, and I have to get up and shake hands with each.

"When I've been there half an hour, papa and mamma drift in separately.
More handshaking. And Aunt Emma soon after brings up the rear. When I get through my time is nearly up, and my arm feels like a political candidate's at a campaign reception. Say, how can I quit it?"—New York Globe.

THAT'S IT!!!

Cough yourself into a fit of spasms and then wonder why you don't get well.
If you will only try a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup your cough will be a thing of the past. It is a positive cure for Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis and all Pulmonary diseases. One bottle will cure you—at your druggist, 25c, 50c or $1.00. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

Limit of Human Strength.

Experiments upon a number of men have shown that a man 5 feet high and weighing 120 pounds will lift, on an average, 150 pounds through a vertical distance of 8 inches or 217 pounds through a height of 1.2 inches.
Others 6.1 feet high and weighing 183 pounds could lift the 150 pounds to a height of 13 inches or 217 pounds to a height of 6 inches. Other men 6 feet 8 inches high and weighing 188 pounds could lift 150 pounds to a height of 16 inches or 217 pounds to a height of 9 inches. By a great variety of experiments it was shown that the average human strength is equivalent to raising 30 pounds a distance of 2 1/4 feet in a second.

"Why didn't you vote for my friend?" asked the politician. "He's the most popular man in the state."

"That's the reason," answered Farmer Corntassel. "I never yet see a man that made a business of being popular who had much of a likin' for real hard work."—Washington Star.

Queer Names.

"We Chinese," said the law student, "give our children queer names. Our girls, for instance, are not called Mabel, Jenny or Matilda, but Cloudy Moon, Celestial Happiness, Spring Peach or Cusket of Perfumes."

"Our boys get less delicious names.
Boys are made for work and wisdom rather than for dancing and pleasure, and their names show this, as Practical Industry, Ancestral Knowledge, Complete Virtue, Ancestral Piety, Discreet Valor."

"To our slaves we give still another set of names. Yes, those dear, pathetic little slaves of ours, some girls, some boys, who do a hundred various little tasks about the house, these lowly creatures have names like Not For Me, Joy to Serve, Your Happiness and Humble Devotion."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sitting on a High Hat.

"If I were to offer to wager that I could sit squarely on my silk hat without crushing it, you would take me up, I suppose," said a clubman to a fellow member. "Well, you would lose," he continued. "A good silk hat should support the weight of a man say 140 pounds without yielding, providing the weight is applied gradually and carefully. The way to do it is to place the hat on a smooth, strongly supported surface, crown downward, and lay a board across the rim, in the hollow.
On this seat yourself steadily and slowly, and you will find the hat does not yield. Of course, a hat that has once been bent or broken will not do. Nor is the rule invariable. It applies only to good hats. Have I ever tried it?
Yes, I have, but not on my own hat."— Philadelphia Record.

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.

Ayer's

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative drugs are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headaches, they cannot be excelled.
Ask your doctor about this.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Vanderbilt and Maud S.

William H. Vanderbilt was one of the most jealous men on earth. He wanted always to be it. There has always been a mystery about the sale of Maud S. to Robert Bonner. Let us have the privilege of unraveling it. In the roadhouses along Seventh and Jerome avenues famous amateur drivers used to sit—such as Frank Work.
When Vanderbilt came racing along the fossils would say, "There comes Maud S." None said, "There comes Vanderbilt." The financier got so mad about it that he sold the mare to Bonner.—New York Press.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.
It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys.
The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle sent by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

MONTHLY MISERY

is one of woman's worst afflictions. It always leaves you weaker, and is sure to shorten your life and make your beauty fade. To stop pain-take Wine of Cardui and it will help to relieve your misery, regulate your functions, make you well, beautiful and strong. It is a reliable remedy for dragging down pains, backache, headache, nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, dizziness, fainting spells, and similar troubles. A safe and efficient medicine for all women's pains and sickness.

Mrs. J. L. Broadhead of Clanton, Ala. writes: "I have used Cardui for my disease, which was one peculiar to women, and it has completely cured me."
